

Development giant launches Ballito office eLan Property Group officially launched their new sales offices situated at the Ballito Lifestyle Centre on February 24.

It was networking paradise with all the who's who in the local property development, government and entertainment sectors attending.

eLan CEO Mark Taylor's well-known passion for the North Coast was displayed in the opening of these new offices.

"The new office's location within the Lifestyle Centre makes it a convenient access point where you can pick up a brochure, interact with one of our professional sales consultants or just grab a cup of coffee," he said.
